MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Intelligence)

SUBJECT: Status Report on OIC

1. The present OIC Staff is composed of the following:
25X1A9a Reber, [REDACTED] (External Research Coordinator).
The first three listed above are working on the problems listed in this book and the daily problems which are brought to our 25X1A9a attention. [REDACTED] has been serving as the acting secretary of the IAC and it is my plan, if approved by you, to remove the "acting" after a month or so of further experience.

2. The attached so-called planning book has been brought up to date. On the topics "Interdepartmental Committees" and "Publications," there have been no new developments worthy of mention. On direction from Bob, OIC has not pursued the matter of ONE-OCI relations nor DD/P needs for intelligence support.
By agreement the Special Assistant for Administration is now handling the travel problems.

3. For convenience there is immediately underlying a list of the most significant developments in your absence.

[REDACTED]
JAMES Q. REBER
Assistant Director
Intelligence Coordination
